Jonathan Todd, Vice Chair, and J. Philip Nester, Senior Associate Manager in our Transportation & Logistics Practice Group, were recently featured in an article titled China Shipbuilding: Industry, Shippers Prep for Tariffs, published in Marine News.

The article explores the U.S. Trade Representative's (USTR) Section 301 investigation into China's dominance in maritime and logistics sectors, spotlighting proposed tariffs and restrictions aimed at countering unfair trade practices. It outlines the strategic risks posed by China's shipping influence, potential cost impacts for U.S. businesses, and the broader implications for supply chain resilience and trade policy.
