Jonathan Todd Featured in Crain's Cleveland & Chicago Quick Take Video on Tariffs & Global Trade

APRIL 7, 2025

Jonathan Todd, vice chair of Benesch's Transportation & Logistics Practice Group and a national authority on global supply chain matters, shares insights in this Crain's Quick Take Video on how companies can develop strategic supply chain risk management approaches to navigate today's challenges. As tariffs and geopolitical factors impact industries ranging from manufacturing to technology, Jonathan emphasizes the growing importance of geopolitics in corporate legal concerns. He outlines key considerations, including risk assessment, sourcing strategies, tariff mitigation and navigating compliance risks such as forced labor and sanctions.
