Featured Practices: Restructuring & Bankruptcy, Litigation

Benesch Restructuring & Bankruptcy Partners Kevin Capuzzi and Jennifer Hoover were featured in Law360 Pulse Daily Litigation for their representation of Chapter 7 Trustee George L. Miller in ongoing bankruptcy-related litigation.

Capuzzi and Hoover represent Chapter 7 Trustee George L. Miller in litigation against Foley & Lardner LLP. The trustee alleges that the firm failed to provide competent legal counsel to KDC Agribusiness as the company restructured its business operations and subsequently entered bankruptcy. The matter has generated significant proceedings in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware, including disputes over jurisdiction and the trustee's efforts to pursue claims on behalf of the bankruptcy estate.

Law360 highlighted Hoover's extensive experience representing Chapter 7 and Chapter 11 trustees, creditors and other stakeholders in complex bankruptcy matters, as well as Capuzzi's broad restructuring and insolvency practice advising debtors, trustees, committees, lenders and creditors in high-profile bankruptcy proceedings.
