Law.com Highlights Benesch Analysis of HRSA's Revised 340B Rebate Pilot

NOVEMBER 3, 2027

Featured Practices: Healthcare, Medicare & Medicaid Reimbursement, Hospital & Health Systems

Featured Industries: Not-for-Profit/Health Care

A recent Law.com article examining the Health Resources and Services Administration's revised 340B Rebate Model Pilot Program cited analysis from Benesch attorneys Lauri Cooper, Kathrin "Kat" Zaki and Shil Mehta.

The article,"New Pilot Could Reshape Controversial Drug Discount Program", references the attorneys' recent client bulletin,"HRSA's Revised 340B Rebate Pilot Drama," which examines the legal challenges surrounding the new pilot and the potential implications for covered entities. In their analysis, the attorneys discuss previous court challenges to rebate models and the questions that remain over whether HRSA's revised approach adequately addresses concerns surrounding the financial and administrative impact on hospitals.
