Benesch is pleased to share that Partner Marc Blubaugh, co-lead of the firm's Transportation & Logistics Practice Group, was quoted in a recent Law360 article examining the legal landscape for transportation companies facing litigation in Texas.

The article explored the challenges and opportunities facing transportation industry defendants in Dallas courts, including how recent Texas Supreme Court decisions may influence litigation outcomes. Amid ongoing concerns about large jury verdicts in trucking and transportation cases, the article noted that recent rulings from the state's highest court have generally been viewed as favorable to the industry.

Blubaugh commented on the evolving environment, stating: "Dallas juries have a reputation for being quite volatile," but recent Texas Supreme Court rulings have been favorable to the transportation industry.
