MEDIA MENTIONS

Law360 Mentions Benesch Attorneys in $17M Patent Verdict

OCTOBER 21, 2025

Benesch represented Gamon Plus, Inc. in securing a $17 million jury verdict against Campbell Soup Company in an Illinois federal patent infringement case involving gravity-operated store display racks. The Benesch team included Kal K. Shah, Mircea A. Tipescu, Cristina Q. Almendarez, Louis Constantinou, and Timothy P. Heaton, who successfully led the case from pre-trial through verdict, achieving a significant victory for the client.

This outcome highlights Benesch's strong track record in complex intellectual property litigation and its commitment to protecting innovation and design.

More: Campbell's Hit With $17M Verdict In Store Rack Patent Case - Law360