MEDIA MENTIONS

Law360 Mentions Benesch Partner James Walsh in Coverage of Logistics Compliance Dispute

JANUARY 5, 2026

Source: Array

Featured Practices: Litigation

Law360 recently published coverage of a federal lawsuit in which a Cleveland-based logistics compliance software company is seeking a judicial declaration that it owns a critical software platform at the center of a dispute with its former chief technology officer. The article discusses the legal and commercial challenges companies face when technology development and ownership rights collide, particularly in the fast-moving logistics and supply chain space.

Read More