MEDIA MENTIONS

Law360 Pulse Highlights Benesch's New State AG-Focused Practice Group

FEBRUARY 18, 2026

Featured Practices: State Attorneys General Investigations & Enforcement

Benesch's launch of its State Attorneys General Investigations & Enforcement Practice was recently featured in Law360 Pulse, highlighting the firm's continued investment in supporting clients facing complex regulatory scrutiny and enforcement actions.

The new practice brings together a multidisciplinary team with deep experience advising clients in high-stakes investigations and enforcement matters led by state attorneys general across the country. Kevin Frankel will lead the new practice group.

"Our new state attorneys general investigations and enforcement practice reflects Benesch's commitment to providing clients with trusted counsel in the most sensitive and high-stakes matters," Frankel said in a statement Tuesday. "With our deep bench, new talent additions, strong leadership and breadth of knowledge, we are ready to help clients manage and resolve [attorneys general] investigations and enforcement actions across the country."

The article underscores Benesch's strategic expansion to meet growing client demand for sophisticated counsel in navigating multi-state enforcement actions and evolving regulatory landscapes.

More: Benesch Launches State AG-Focused Practice Group - Law360 Pulse