

Marc Blubaugh Featured as Industry Expert in The Tenney Group's Web Series, "Hot Seat"

OCTOBER 21, 2019

As part of the continued web series, "In the Hot Seat with the Tenney Group," Marc Blubaugh, partner and Co-Chair of Benesch's Transportation & Logistics Practice Group, was invited to discuss a variety of transportation issues, including regulatory issues on the horizon, developing technology trends, the plaintiff's personal injury bar, and other related topics providing valuable insight and perspective to transportation business owners.

The "Hot Seat" is a unique industry series designed to bring timely expertise to business owners from across the transportation industry spectrum. It is produced and hosted by Tenney Group, a merger and acquisition advisory firm that has been dedicated to the transportation industry since 1973.

To view this week's episode, please click here.

For more information on Marc's practice, please click here.

For more information on Tenney Group, please click here.