

Medin Technologies, Inc. Completes Add-on Acquisition of Advantage Manufacturing Technologies, Inc.

JULY 2, 2019

Medin Technologies, Inc., a medical contract manufacturer owned by Benesch client Seven Point Equity Partners LLC and headquartered in Totowa, New Jersey, announced its completed add-on acquisition of Monroe, Washington-based Advantage Manufacturing Technologies, Inc. (AMT), a manufacturer of orthopedic implants, through a newly formed, wholly owned subsidiary named AMT Medical, Inc.

AMT Medical will continue AMT's proud tradition of customer-focused leadership in orthopedic implant manufacturing. In combination with Medin Technologies, AMT Medical benefits from an augmented management team, a broadened product offering and greater financial resources.

The Benesch team was led by Julie Price and included Ryan Krisby and Corey Sparks. Full press release here.
