Crain's Chicago's Notable Women Lawyers List honors powerful women leaders selected based on their reputation for excellence in the practice of law, their positive impact on the legal profession, and their willingness to mentor other attorneys. These women leaders represent an impressive cross-section of Chicago-area legal industry leaders, who all have served the legal profession with distinction.

Margo Wolf O'Donnell is a partner in and Co-Chair of Benesch's Labor & Employment Practice Group. She is an experienced litigator who handles a variety of cases, including litigation involving restrictive covenants, business torts, employment issues, intellectual property, and class action defense. Margo's experience includes federal, state, and administrative agency litigation involving allegations of sex, race, national origin, disability and age discrimination, wage-and-hour violations, and breach of contract. She has represented her clients from the initial litigation stages through trial and appeal. Click here to view Margo's profile on the Crain's Chicago website.
