Featured Industries: Transportation & Logistics

Benesch Partner Jonathan Todd was featured in a recent Plastics News video, "Tariffs Not Gone - they're just getting more complicated."

The video incorporated Todd's previously published insights noting that, while certain tariffs have faced legal challenges, the landscape remains complex for importers and manufacturers. He notes the ongoing uncertainty surrounding potential refunds and compliance obligations, emphasizing that companies must remain vigilant as policies continue to evolve.

Todd also emphasized the importance of maintaining detailed customer records, as documentation may play a critical role in navigating refund claims and demonstrating compliance in an increasingly scrutinized trade environment.
