

Rotunda Capital Partners Invests in Door Pro America

DECEMBER 7, 2023

Rotunda Capital Partners, a private equity firm specializing in middle-market investments, has announced its recent investment in Door Pro America, a leading direct-to-consumer installer and service provider of residential garage doors. Rotunda's investment will support the continued growth and success of Door Pro America.

Door Pro America has established itself as one of the largest and most reputable residential garage door service providers in the country, serving customers throughout the U.S. with facilities in Virginia, Maryland, Illinois, Washington, Oregon, New York, New Jersey, and Colorado. Fueled by their market leading reputation, Door Pro is a leading installer of Amarr Garage Doors & Commercial Doors and LiftMaster garage doors and openers and is quickly becoming a premier provider of 24/7 maintenance services, serving the residential repair, replacement, and new installation markets.

The Benesch team, led by Connie Porter, Alex Moss, Logan Bryant, Kristo Pantelides, Kate Powell, Jessica Angney, Julia Rolniak, Casey Kucharson, Michael Beer, Reed Sirak, and Thomas Jackson served as legal counsel for both the acquisition and credit facility for Rotunda.
