Ryan Moore Joins Benesch

JULY 13, 2017

Benesch is pleased to announce that Ryan Moore has joined the firm.

Ryan is a corporate and securities associate who concentrates his practice on middle market mergers and acquisitions for privately-held businesses and private equity funds, corporate governance issues, and general corporate law matters for private equity funds, their portfolio companies, and other public and privately-held businesses. Ryan often serves as outside general counsel for privately-held middle market and public company clients, providing general business counseling on day-to-day contract and general corporate matters and has extensive experience with contract term and conditions related to services, distribution, manufacturing and supply agreements. He received his J.D. from the John Marshall Law School and his B.S. from the University of Illinois.

Since January 2015, Benesch has welcomed over 83 new attorneys, 35 staff members and opened a new office in Chicago. The strategic addition of these attorneys and offices is another step in executing the firm's aggressive growth plan and goal to continuously enhance the quality of service provided to clients.
