

MEDIA MENTIONS

Scripps News Interviews Partner Jonathan Todd on Customs Duty Refund Process

APRIL 21, 2026

Featured Practices: Litigation

Featured Industries: Transportation & Logistics

Jonathan Todd, Vice Chair of Benesch's Transportation & Logistics Practice Group, was recently interviewed by Scripps News about the newly launched federal process for seeking refunds of customs duties deemed unlawful.

Jonathan discussed timelines, eligibility requirements for importers, and the potential for compliance reviews, litigation and business negotiations as companies await recovery. He encouraged importers to participate in the administrative process, noting that many are taking a cautious, wait-and-see approach rather than pursuing lawsuits.

See the full Scripps News interview below.