

Stephanie Sheridan, San Francisco Managing Partner, Honored as 2025 Leading Commercial Litigator by Daily Journal

FEBRUARY 5, 2025

Benesch is proud to announce that Stephanie Sheridan, managing partner of the firm's San Francisco office and chair of the Retail & E-Commerce Practice Group, has been named a 2025 Leading Commercial Litigator by the Daily Journal.

This award recognizes the top performing commercial and bet-the-company litigators across the country, demonstrated by significant case victories, extensive experience, impactful contributions to the legal field, a strong reputation among peers and clients, and professional accolades.

"Stephanie's recognition as a Leading Commercial Litigator is a testament to her exceptional work, leadership and significant impact," said Managing Partner Gregg Eisenberg. "As one of the nation's go-to bet-the-company litigators with a track record of success, Stephanie's dedication and contributions continue to inspire those around her and set a high standard for excellence in our field."

Stephanie is a leading retail and e-commerce attorney, known for building one of the first retail-focused practices offering a 'one-stop shop' for the industry. She is the partner-in-charge of Benesch's powerhouse San Francisco office and chair of its highly regarded Retail and E-Commerce Practice Group. Stephanie has a distinguished career advising and defending iconic brands and start-ups, having tried numerous civil jury actions to defense verdicts and defended more than 50 consumer class actions. She represents clients in matters spanning false advertising, privacy violations, fraudulent pricing practices, sustainability claims, wiretapping and more.

Widely regarded as a thought leader in the retail and e-commerce space, Stephanie has been named a Law360 "MVP in Retail & E-Commerce" for four consecutive years and is the only law firm representative on the Board of the California Retailers Association. She also serves on Benesch's Executive Committee and frequently presents on industry trends through various industry organizations.

Stephanie's contributions to the field have solidified her reputation as a preeminent attorney committed to helping her clients navigate complex legal landscapes and maintain marketplace dominance.

To learn more about Stephanie's practice and notable cases, view her full profile in the Daily Journal here.