Tammy Becker Reelected as President of Illinois Nursing Home Administrators' Association for Another Term

NOVEMBER 27, 2023

Benesch is proud to announce that Tammy Becker has once again been reelected as President of the Illinois Nursing Home Administrators Association (INHAA), marking another year of steadfast leadership. Since first assuming the role in 2018, Tammy has demonstrated an unwavering commitment to the association's mission and its members.

The Illinois Nursing Home Administrators Association, renowned for its role in the long-term care industry, continues to offer crucial education and training to professionals, including licensed nursing home administrators and nurses.

With a distinguished career spanning more than three decades as a healthcare paralegal, Tammy brings a wealth of experience and an in-depth understanding of the long-term care field in her role as a paralegal in Benesch's Chicago office.
