PRESS RELEASES

Tammy Becker Reelected as President of the Illinois Nursing Home Administrators' Association

DECEMBER 1, 2022

Benesch is pleased to announce that Tammy Becker has been reelected as President of the Illinois Nursing Home Administrators Association ("INHAA") for a one-year term. Tammy has served as President of the Board of the Illinois Nursing Home Administrators Association since 2018 and has been a member since 1996.

The Illinois Nursing Home Administrators Association represents and provides education and training to individuals such as licensed nursing home administrators and nurses in the long-term care industry.

Tammy Becker is a paralegal in Benesch's Chicago office with over 30 years of experience as a healthcare paralegal with a comprehensive working knowledge of the long term care field.

More Information on INHAA.