

Wild Appointed to Board of Mandel Foundation

NOVEMBER 23, 2021

Benesch is pleased to announce that Jeffrey J. Wild has been appointed to the Board of Trustees of the Jack, Joseph and Morton Mandel Foundation.

Jack, Joseph and Morton Mandel founded the Mandel Foundation in 1953 in their hometown of Cleveland, Ohio. The work of the Foundation is grounded in the belief that exceptional leaders, inspired by powerful ideas, are key to improving society and the lives of people around the world. The Mandel Foundation has identified five areas of engagement that influence its decisions for giving, which include: leadership development, management of nonprofits, humanities, Jewish life and urban engagement.

Jeff is Benesch's Administrative Partner, Chief Strategy Partner, Chair of the firm's Real Estate & Environmental Practice Group and a member of the Executive Committee. He focuses his practice on commercial real estate matters, with an emphasis on development, acquisitions, dispositions, financing and joint venture work.
