

Zimmerman Selected by The Cleveland Leadership Center for The 2023 Leadership Program

JULY 20, 2022

Benesch is pleased to announce that the Cleveland Leadership Center has selected Robert A. Zimmerman as one of the 65 people who will join the Leadership Cleveland class of 2023 for a 10-month program.

The Cleveland Leadership Center's 10-month program challenges senior-level leaders by providing unique and meaningful opportunities for conversations and experiences that build knowledge, skills, and relationships. Approximately 65 leaders are selected through a highly competitive selection process.

Rob is Chair of Benesch's Government Relations Practice Group and a former Vice Chair of the Litigation Practice Group. He is a seasoned and respected advocate in state and federal courtrooms, the Ohio Statehouse and city halls around the State of Ohio. Rob served sixteen years as a member of Shaker Heights City Council and also served a term as Vice Mayor. He is a nationally recognized commentator on matters of public concern and has been quoted in the New York Times and The Wall Street Journal.
