Overview

Alex Moss focuses his practice on a wide range of corporate transactions, including acquisitions, divestitures, restructurings, control and minority investments, and joint ventures. He represents middle-market private equity funds and their portfolio companies, as well as independent sponsors and public and private companies, in strategic M&A transactions and equity matters.

Alex advises clients across a variety of industries, including professional services, industrial services, manufacturing, healthcare, consumer products and information technology. He works closely with clients throughout the transactional lifecycle, from deal execution through post-closing governance, commercial contracts and integration.

In addition to his M&A practice, Alex counsels clients on corporate governance, organizational matters and operational issues, and represents sponsors, institutional lenders and individual investors in minority investments, co-investments and equity financings.
