Overview

Bringing over 20 years of legal experience to her role, Andrea supports the operations of Benesch's Healthcare Practice Group. She provides support for acquisitions, dispositions and financings for clients in the long-term care and senior housing industry.

Andrea has a strong background supporting law firms and in-house legal teams at both public and private companies. Her real estate and finance experience comes from her time as part of an in-house legal team for a real estate development company and a member of a real estate group at a law firm.

Additionally, Andrea has experience in corporate governance, entity management (domestic and international), SEC reporting support (Forms 10-K, 3 and 4), contract administration, records management and ordering and summarizing UCC searches, as well as filing financing statements.

Prior to joining Benesch, Andrea served as a paralegal at a global manufacturing company.
