Overview

David is a seasoned professional dedicated to supporting attorneys throughout the entire spectrum of corporate transactions, from inception to dissolution. With expertise in entity management and a keen understanding of compliance with federal, state, and local regulations, David excels in guiding businesses through the intricacies of their operational activities.

In addition, his proficiency extends to coordinating the establishment of various entities, including corporations (both for-profit and non-profit), limited liability companies, and limited partnerships. David ensures the maintenance of registrations in domestic and foreign jurisdictions, collaborating closely with clients to facilitate timely filings nationwide.

As a detail-oriented individual, David takes on extensive filing responsibilities with Secretaries of State, engaging in frequent UCC filings and conducting thorough research of state codes and regulations. Serving as the primary point of contact for external vendors providing statutory representation and entity monitoring services, David plays a pivotal role in ensuring seamless operations.
