Overview

Lizzy brings over a decade of experience in business development and practice management within the legal sector to her post. She has a deep understanding of the strategic, operational and people-focused dimensions necessary for effective law firm management. With a talent for idea conceptualization and product execution, she has driven numerous successful initiatives.

Lizzy plays a key role in ensuring the successful delivery of projects across various business functions. She has extensive experience developing and implementing practice strategies, supporting communications initiatives, managing recruitment and integration processes, overseeing partnership pipelines, identifying cross-industry and cross-practice business opportunities, and monitoring financial performance.

Prior to joining Benesch, Lizzy served as Associate Director of Practice Management for the Finance Practice at Mayer Brown. She holds an MBA with a concentration in Finance from the University of Houston-Downtown and a B.A. in International Studies from the University of St. Thomas.
