Overview

Hunter focuses his practice on private equity, commercial lending, and financial transactions. He represents private equity sponsors, corporate borrowers, and commercial lenders in a broad range of corporate transactions, including merger and acquisition financing, syndicated credit, mezzanine financing, direct lending, asset-based lending, and reserve-base lending.

With extensive experience drafting complex financial documents, Hunter has a strong command of credit agreements, term sheets, commitment letters, engagement letters, inter-creditor agreements, collateral documentation, and legal opinions. He is skilled at simplifying complex financial constructs for clients, offering practical solutions that help them approach the negotiation table with confidence and make informed decisions.

Hunter thrives in the fast-paced nature of his work, consistently pushing deals over the finish line and achieving results. His versatility across different markets, industries, and credit structures makes him a trusted partner. Known for being efficient, analytical, and collaborative, clients enjoy working with Hunter because of his keen attention to detail and exceptional service.
