Overview

Jared represents property buyers, sellers, investors and developers in real property acquisitions and dispositions, development matters, and finance, leasing and sale-leaseback transactions.

Experienced across commercial property asset classes, Jared excels in negotiating and closing multilayered, large-scale and complex real estate deals. He regularly closes acquisitions and dispositions of shopping centers, industrial properties, multifamily housing (including affordable housing projects), office buildings, and mixed-use developments across the nation.

Clients appreciate Jared's responsiveness and ability to understand the parties' perspectives and concerns, avoid contention, and find solutions that protect their interests and get deals done.

Currently, Jared is engaged in a part-time secondment at Blackstone subsidiary LivCor. Working closely with its executives and management team, he is focused on handling the company's property dispositions.
