Overview

Jonathan represents private equity sponsors in acquisitions and recapitalizations of portfolio companies and middle-market corporate entities in mergers, acquisitions, strategic alliances, financings and divestitures of business divisions and key assets.

He also counsels clients on entity formation, restructuring, business transactions, corporate governance, day-to-day business matters, and post-merger and acquisition integration issues. Jonathan's experience extends to debt and capital raises, add-on acquisitions and investment rollovers. Additionally, he negotiates employment agreements and noncompete agreements and oversees post-acquisition benefits-related issues.

Clients appreciate Jonathan's diligence, responsiveness and problem-solving skills. He acquires a clear picture of the challenges they face, their pain points, and their goals. Then, he works on practical solutions to help them achieve their desired ends.
