Overview

Luisa is a seasoned litigation paralegal with a diverse background in corporate, civil and criminal law, bringing a wealth of experience and expertise. Over the years, she has honed her skills in managing complex legal cases, providing indispensable support to attorneys through diligent case preparation, and client communication.

In addition, she holds a Master of Science degree in Criminal Justice, which has significantly deepened her understanding of the legal system and its various intricacies. This has equipped her with a robust theoretical foundation and critical thinking skills essential for analyzing legal issues from multiple perspectives, enhanced her proficiency in legal research and writing, allowing her to produce well-founded and persuasive legal documents.

With expertise extending beyond the courtroom, she has supported corporate legal departments in navigating regulatory compliance, contract management, and corporate governance. In the criminal law arena, her meticulous attention to detail and ability to navigate multifaceted legal environments have allowed her to assist in both prosecution and defense strategies, managing case files, and liaising with law enforcement and forensic experts. Luisa's ability to seamlessly transition between corporate and criminal cases underscores her versatility and commitment to delivering exceptional paralegal support across a wide range of legal disciplines.

Representative Matters

- Represented Livara Health Care, Inc. in securing multi-state licensure for its physical therapy staff by coordinating with state licensing boards, preparing and submitting required documentation, and managing follow-up communications to ensure timely issuance of licenses.

- Represented a professional basketball player accused of conspiracy and wire fraud for allegedly attempting to avoid paying child support and taxes for several years. The government claimed that the pro athlete "unlawfully, voluntarily, intentionally and knowingly" conspired to defraud the U.S. by falsely underreporting his income and sought prison time for the athlete. Benesch defended the athlete, securing a probationary period and avoiding prison time for the client.
