

Melissa Sobrepera

Wilmington

T 302.442.7083

msobrepera@beneschlaw.com

Overview

With a focus on bankruptcy and restructuring, Melissa helps clients navigate complex bankruptcy matters and commercial litigation with a practical, client-centered approach. Drawing on experience as a manager in the legal department of a real estate development and leasing firm, Melissa brings a strong understanding of the legal intricacies involved in commercial property transactions and development.

Melissa has supported clients in a variety of matters, including statutory dissolution of Delaware LLCs, representing clients with claims in chapter 11 and chapter 7 cases, advising chapter 11 liquidating trusts and committees of unsecured creditors, and assisting with foreclosure proceedings of commercial mortgages. Melissa is known for her collaborative spirit, attention to detail and a commitment to delivering creative solutions for clients facing financial challenges.

During law school, Melissa served as a Writing Fellow, chaired the Alternative Dispute Resolution Team Competition and was Secretary of the Latinx Law Student Association-experiences that honed strong advocacy, leadership and communication skills. Melissa looks forward to building lasting client relationships and contributing to the success of the firm's Restructuring & Bankruptcy Practice Group.

Credentials

EDUCATION

- University of Maryland Francis King Carey School of Law, 2025, J.D., Business Law
 - CALI Excellence for the Future Award®

- University of North Georgia, 2017, Bachelor of Science

BAR & COURT ADMISSIONS

- Delaware

News & Insights

- Benesch Attorneys Publish Law360 Expert Analysis on Chapter 11 Default Interest Ruling
May 21, 2026 | Contributed Content & Presentations
- SDNY Bankruptcy Court: Solvent Debtors Face Higher Hurdle to Avoid Default Interest Under 11 U.S.C. § 506\(b\)
May 1, 2026 | Client Alerts & Insights