Overview

Neeta advises domestic and international clients-both public and private-on a wide range of business law matters, including strategic acquisitions, cross-border transactions, SPACs, joint ventures, partnerships and private investments. Her practice focuses on corporate M&A with particular emphasis on strategic private M&A transactions, spanning a broad array of industries including technology, gaming, aviation, consumer goods and retail, cybersecurity, e-commerce, fintech and fast-moving consumer goods.

Neeta is committed to being a trusted advisor to her clients, ensuring they are well-prepared and positioned for success in every transaction. Clients describe Neeta as collaborative, detail-oriented and responsive, with strong business acumen, and value her ability to adapt to each client's unique legal needs.

Having lived and worked in the Middle East, Canada and the U.S., Neeta brings a uniquely diverse and well-rounded perspective to her practice. This global background enables her to work seamlessly with teams and clients from a variety of backgrounds and cultures.

Neeta's work has been recognized with the "Emerging Leaders Award" by The M&A Advisor and the "Rising Star" award for Mergers & Acquisitions by Euromoney. She was also shortlisted for the Women in Business Law Americas Awards: North America Rising Star (Corporate M&A). Neeta has previously served as a board member of the South Asian Bar Association of Northern California and is a frequent author and speaker on technology and strategic private M&A matters.

Prior to joining Benesch, Neeta was a corporate M&A partner in the Silicon Valley office of White & Case LLP. Neeta also practiced as an M&A attorney in the Toronto office of Gowling WLG.
