Overview

Nicholas is dedicated to helping clients navigate complex corporate transactions, with a focus on mergers and acquisitions and private equity matters. Motivated by a personal understanding of how overwhelming the legal system can be, he approaches each matter with empathy, persistence and a commitment to practical solutions.

Nicholas's legal experience spans corporate governance, business operations and real estate, providing him with a well-rounded perspective to address clients' diverse needs.

During law school, Nicholas deepened his interest in corporate law through coursework in Business Associations and Securities, as well as by authoring a published law review article on the regulation of cryptocurrency. His externship with the Cook County Chancery Division and internships in both legal and business development roles further shaped his approach to problem-solving and client service.

Nicholas brings resilience, initiative and strong interpersonal skills to his growing practice, aiming to deliver efficient, mutually beneficial outcomes for every client.
