Overview

Nora is a commercial litigator with significant experience representing businesses in complex disputes and consumer-related litigation. She manages all aspects of litigation, from initial case assessment through trial, and regularly handles discovery, motion practice, mediation, and witness preparation.

Nora also has significant experience in the transportation and logistics industry. She represents carriers, transportation brokers, third-party logistics providers and other businesses in contract disputes, business torts, cargo claims and other commercial litigation matters in state and federal courts and before various arbitration tribunals.

Known for her practical, business-minded approach, Nora helps clients resolve disputes efficiently while positioning them to achieve their broader commercial objectives. She regularly provides counsel to clients on pre-litigation disputes, strategy, and risk mitigation.
