Overview

Owen represents U.S. and international real estate private equity funds, private credit lenders, banks, investors, developers, and corporations in a wide array of complex debt and equity commercial real estate transactions.

Owen has extensive experience representing clients on both portfolio and standalone acquisitions and dispositions, joint ventures, and lender-side and borrower-side senior and subordinate financing and re-financings across a wide range of asset classes. He also advises on real estate matters connected to M&A and bankruptcy, crafting and negotiating real estate provisions in stock and asset purchase agreements and negotiating lease agreements.

Owen previously served as a Real Estate Associate at Kirkland & Ellis in Chicago. Beyond his transactional work, Owen maintains an active pro bono practice. He has negotiated lease agreements for nonprofit organizations, assisted elderly clients with estate planning, and supported asylum seekers by reviewing and drafting essential government forms.
