

PRACTICE

Transportation & Logistics

Nationally recognized as a premier industry-leading practice, Benesch's Transportation & Logistics Practice Group advises domestic and international clients on the complex challenges of transportation, logistics, supply chain management, warehousing and fulfillment, and international trade.

Composed of transactional, regulatory and litigation attorneys, the team represents some of the biggest names in the business during high-stakes, mission-critical matters across all services and modes, including motor carrier, rail, air and maritime.

What We Do

Widely recognized for our experience drafting and negotiating all types of transportation contracts and templates, including those involving:

- Carriers of all modes
- Warehouse operators
- Brokers
- Equipment providers
- Freight forwarders
- Technology companies

Regularly represent clients before federal regulatory agencies, including:

- FMCSA
- FRA
- BIS
- PHMSA
- TSA
- DDTC
- FMC
- CBP
- OFAC

Deep industry knowledge for all manner of litigation and dispute resolution nationwide, including:

- General business and contract disputes
- Driver misclassification claims
- Trade secret, noncompete and unfair competition controversies
- Catastrophic injury and casualty claims
- High-value cargo/inventory claims
- Freight payment disputes

Numbers & Recognition

25

Dedicated transportation attorneys

with the largest headcount of former in-house counsel in the industry

55+

Multidisciplinary attorneys round out the team

6

Attorneys

hold or are completing MBA degrees in addition to their law degrees

Ranked Nationally

by Best Law Firms®

Recognized
Nationally

by Chambers

Breadth of Experience

One of the few law firms in the country with a full-service Transportation & Logistics Practice Group representing clients across the entire transportation continuum, including commercial users of such services:

- Manufacturers
- Retailers
- Distributors
- Warehouse Operators
- Freight Forwarders
- Brokers
- Carriers